ABOUT THE PROGRAM: "What's New in Germany Genealogy"

This presentation will show new online resources for researching German ancestors.
Audience level: All

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Jeff is an avid German genealogist and has more than 20 years of experience in genealogical research and writing with a focus on local history. He has authored more than 25 publications identifying and indexing local sources to aid researchers. He is an expert in German research and old script handwriting and has created many indexes for Germans living in Hamilton County, Ohio. Currently he is indexing Catholic Church baptisms in Hamilton County, which will take several years to complete. He also is serving as the Hamilton County Genealogical Society Treasurer.
